

BORGWARNER SELECTS KIT MASTERS
FOR THE INDEPENDENT AFTERMARKET

BorgWarner's Fan Clutch Products Available through Kit Masters Beginning October 1

Auburn Hills, Michigan, September 30, 2010 – BorgWarner Thermal Systems has selected Kit Masters as the exclusive distributor in the U.S. and Canada for all BorgWarner aftermarket heavy-duty truck fan drive products, including viscous fan drives, pneumatic fan drives, and fan blades.

“Kit Masters has built a solid reputation as a fan clutch expert with a strong fleet conversion sales force,” said Dan CasaSanta, President and General Manager, BorgWarner Thermal Systems. “We believe their focus on BorgWarner Thermal Systems’ products, with an emphasis on technical service, will benefit BorgWarner and its customers.”

Beginning October 1, customers can set up accounts and place orders by contacting Kit Master’s customer service at 1-800-810-9110 or visiting their Web site www.kitmasters.com.

SKF, the current distributor, will continue to fill orders and back orders placed prior to September 30.
