

Henk Vanthournout

Vice President and President and General Manager of BorgWarner Drivetrain and Morse Systems

Henk Vanthournout was appointed Vice President and President and General Manager of BorgWarner Drivetrain and Morse Systems in July 2026. In this role, Vanthournout is responsible for BorgWarner's global Drivetrain and Morse Systems business.

Prior to his current role, Vanthournout was President and General Manager of BorgWarner Battery Energy Systems business since July 2025 and President and General Manager of BorgWarner Battery and Charging Systems since July 2024.

He joined BorgWarner in 2011 and has held various positions including Vice President and General Manager Drivetrain Systems, Vice President of Global Sales, Product Strategy in Turbo Systems and Vice President & General Manager, Battery Systems within the Business Unit of Drivetrain and Battery Systems.

Prior to joining BorgWarner, Vanthournout served 14 years at Lear Corporation in several roles of increased responsibilities in Europe and the USA.

Vanthournout earned a master's degree in business administration from Colorado State University as well as a bachelor's degree in business management at the VIVES University of Applied Sciences in Kortrijk, Belgium.

BORGWARNER